

TRAIL GIRL TO BRIGHAM CITY

Three Officers Lose Trace of Helen Brewer Who Broke Jail Here

Although Helen Brewer, 15-year-old girl, who escaped from the county jail Wednesday night, had not been recaptured until noon today, members of the sheriff's department had determined that the girl went directly to Brigham City following her escape and remained there for several hours yesterday. She is reported to have registered in a hotel there under her true name, but investigation showed that she did not occupy a room.

According to reports, Miss Brewer sat in the hotel lobby for some time following her arrival yesterday morning and later appeared at a restaurant where she is said to have explained she was without funds and to have "mooched" a meal. From there her trail was lost.

Efforts are being made today to recapture the girl and it is the belief of the officers that she will again be in custody within a few hours.

Miss Brewer was being held in the woman's ward of the county jail by juvenile officers. She was one of the first girls to be arrested in the vice raid carried on by the police department and was held for medical treatment. She effected her escape Tuesday evening by removing several large screws from a door frame with a spoon handle and climbed through the opening to liberty.

MAYOR TALKS ON LIGHT PLANT

Explains Plans of City to Establish Municipal Enterprise

Outlining plans for a proposed municipally owned and operated electric light, heat and power plant in Ogden and calling attention to the success of other cities, Mayor Francis Francis spoke last night before members of the Carpenters and Joiners of America in the I. O. O. F. hall. The meeting was marked by a large attendance and the frequent outbreak of applause indicated that the plan found favor among the union members. At the completion of the talk a rising vote of thanks was given to Mayor Francis.

SAYS IDEA GROWING.—The city executive pointed out that instead of municipal ownership becoming unpopular, the plan is rapidly growing and is marked with greater success each year. He explained that in 1917, 233 cities in the United States operated and owned plants. At the present time, Mayor Francis declared, 350 cities own and operate their public waterworks, which have resulted in decreases in price to the people to an average of 44 per cent. More than previously charged by corporations and in addition the plants are paying their debts of installation from their earnings.

He called attention to the fact that Cleveland, Ohio, municipally owned plant sells and has been selling electric current for years at a rate of three cents a kilowatt hour at the maximum rate. This, the speaker explained, is one-third the average charge demanded by most corporations and in Ogden. The Cleveland plant in 1919, he declared, made profits totaling $124,000.

In Ontario, Canada, Mayor Francis asserted, "a state owned system is supplying nearly 200 cities with electric current at one-third the rate charged previously by private corporations. This plant earned $461,000 last year."

Longmont, Colo., installed a plant at the cost of $199,000 and paid for itself within five years.

LOGAN'S PLANT.—Logan is now getting light at the rate of 10 cents a light per month and consumers are allowed to burn their lights at any hour without additional charge. Logan, he said, has not yet turned money into the treasury. It is estimated that the system has paid the people of the city between $400,000 and $500,000. The Utah Power & Light company supplies current to a portion of Logan at the rate of 10 cents per light per month and it is his contention that that company should serve Ogden at the same rate or confess that it is deliberately playing the part of the brigand and trying to destroy municipal institutions and eliminate them from competition.

Senate Judiciary Committee Reports Unfavorably on Measure

(Special Dispatch). STATE CAPITOL, Feb. 17.—The senate judiciary committee today reported unfavorably the senate bill proposing to cut down the industrial compensation administration in other hands. No action has yet been taken on the bill amending the present laws relating to the compensation laws.

Senator David Jensen of Weber introduced a bill designed to stop the practice of buying articles on the installment plan and then carrying them from the state. The bill makes conviction punishable by not more than one year in the penitentiary and a fine not to exceed $1000.

Representative Irvin of Box Elder introduced a bill in the house fixing the boundaries of land bordering on lakes and streams. His bill provides that when the lake or river recedes the land so left shall belong to the state but his proposed law shall not disturb invested rights.

Clearer discussion was still marked in the house. The impression prevailed that the house would pass some form of anti-tobacco legislation.

CRIME WAVE IS WAR AFTERMATH

Expert Tells How Struggle Has Led to World-wide Outlawry

By BURTON RASCOE. CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—The crime wave is the logical and expected aftermath of war," according to Clarence A. Neymann, head of the Cook County Psychopathic hospital, and professor of psychology at Rush Medical college.

"The war taught men the cheapness of human life," he said, in an interview. "It was confined to the large cities of the United States. It is obvious that the country which was a battlefield, The Paris, Berlin, Rome, and London newspapers are filled with stories of crime on an almost unprecedented scale. This is because the war taught men the use of force."

"There is a financial readjustment in progress made necessary by the war," he said. "And there is a social readjustment in progress made necessary by the condition of people during the war."

"When I think of the war, I do not think of the perpetrators of the vast number of crimes now being committed in military service. Very few were. But those who stayed at home, especially those who worked on the battlefield of criminality, were taught these things."

FIGHTING AND KILLING.—For four years the newspapers were filled with accounts of battles, wholesale homicide.

"People came to look upon these tremendous daily killings as sort of a game."

"Human life came to be a matter of no importance when it was being blotted out in thousands of ten thousand or more in a day."

"Then there were accounts of individual killings in which the killers were quite naturally acclaimed as heroes and plaudits of daring aviators, bombers, and scouts, men who faced danger and killed men, and were decorated for it."

"Even enemy aviators were cheered and honored as 'game' and 'sportsmen'."

"The grim fact of death was lost track of."

"Borderland" psychopaths heard these stories of bombing expeditions, shipping, and individual killings. They visualized the war as an animated Diamond Dick detective yarn, and fed up with the daily and looting."

AFTER-WAR SITUATION.—There are the readjustments necessary after war which also cause crime. For a long time men of all kinds received high wages. Then many were thrown out of jobs. They got hungry. They robbed and killed.

"Men with high wages acquired a taste for things they never wanted before."

"Thrown back again into their old lives of toil at low wages or thrust out of employment, some of them became embittered against society."

"Hence they took to crime."

"All crimes are committed by persons who have a psychopathic personality. Given the right education, the right environment, and the right psychic factors, and many of them would lead peaceful, honorable, and respectable lives."

"Under the pressure of unemployment, bad associates, hostile environments, hunger, fear or fancied injustices, and they break out as criminals."

NO WORK, HE GOES WILLINGLY TO JAIL

John Butler, colored vagrant, told a hard luck story in a humorous manner in the city court this morning, and upheld traditional good nature of the Negro race by his smiling acquiescence to Judge L. J. Holther's sentence of $10 fine or ten days in jail.

"Do what you want with me. There ain't no work nowhere because there ain't no work," he remarked. "I travels from Ohio to California and back uncovered no labor, he said."

"It suits me, chief," he said as Judge Holther passed sentence. "There ain't nothing else to do."

OLD ENGLISH RECIPE FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES.

If you know of some one who is troubled with catarrh of the ears, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. In these latter scientific days a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Straws, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear. Hence the disease means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the ear passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula is a simple and effective one. It is a constitutional treatment and should be especially successful in cases where the disease has been under more favorable climate conditions.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of pure Glycerine. Glycerine is a powerful solvent. Put it in a bottle and add to it 1 pint of hot water. Shake the mixture well. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Glycerine should open breathing passages easily and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is removed. Patients used in this way are directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make. Glycerine is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh of head noises or is troubled with hearing should give this treatment.—Advertisement.
